The Principal Speaks

Fasten your gaze on the horizon and reap the fruits of your endeavour. As we tread down memory lane and rewind memories of the year that was, we realize that success is always a conglomeration of 99% perspiration and 1% inspiration. Motivation can add wonders to achievement only if it is accompanied by diligence. Let hard work and endearment help you on the path of progress. Swim in the ocean of ambition and anchor in the harbor of success.
